

Entrepreneurially

Solutionary

solutionary

(noun)

a person who offers a revolutionary solution.

Activity: Think of a solution to a problem you really care about. Then work out how you can multiply its impact by 10.

Disruptionist

disruptionist

(noun)

a person who makes normal better, much better.

Activity: Challenge your peers solutions and try to improve them.

Profithere

profithere

(noun)

a person who can make money here without losing money there.

Activity: Discuss what risks are involved with your solution and how they can be minimised.

Scalehero

scalehero

(noun)

a person who solves a problem and shares it with others.

Activity: Discuss how other businesses or organisations can use your solutions.

Avaricious

avaricious

(noun)

a person who is curiously aware, always learning.

Activity: Take their learning out of the classroom. For example get feedback about what they have learned with your family or a professional.

Mustaker

mustaker

(noun)

a person who makes the mistakes they have to make.

Activity: Allow yourself to make mistakes. Identify what mistakes are likely or inevitable and how you can learn from them.

The Journey of Entrepreneurial

Thinking Solutionary

Mustaker

Disruptionist

Avarious Scalehero

